

Edmonton Native Healing Centre

Invites all women to join us for a

Women's Sharing Circle

Women are created to be together, to collaborate, to support each other, and to be a sacred community. These special moments lift the spirit and melt the heart.

Next meeting: Tuesday, October 23, 2018 from 11:00am to 1:00pm at the Centre, 11813 – 123 Street, Edmonton.

We will discuss issues that are important to us as women; there is no agenda for circles as we want those attending to feel heard.

Please join us for a good chat, some snacks and tea.

Women shape the generations to come, women have tremendous creative power to generate new life, to heal communities, create peace and so much more.
